

DON`T BE ANYTHING LESS THAN EVERYTHING YOU CAN BE

[SALLY]

Don't be the leaf

If you can be the tree,

Don't be the raindrop

If you can be the sea.

`Cause a leaf may fall,

But the tree remains.

It may never rain at all,

But the sea remains;

Better to be the tree

And the sea.

See?

Don't be a cloud

If you can be the sky,

[LINUS]

Don't be a feather,

Be a bird

And fly.

Clouds roll by,

But the sky rolls on

And a bird can fly

With a feather gone,

Be the bird

And the sky

And the tree

And the deep blue sea,

[LINUS AND SALLY]

Don't be anything less

Than everything you can be!

[PATTY]

Don't be the sail

If you can be the boat.

Don't be the lining

If you can be the coat.

It may lose its sail,

But a boat will float,

And a coat

Without a lining

Is still a coat.

Better to be the boat

And the coat.

Quote!

[LINUS]

Don't be the stick

If you can be the drum,

Don't be the sugar,

Be the plum,

By gum.

[PATTY]

You can break a stick

But the drum will beat.

[LINUS]

Without a sugar coat,

plums`re good to eat.

[ALL]

Better to be the drum

And the plum

And the coat

And the bird

And the sky
And the tree
And the deep blue sea;
Don't be anything less
Than everything you can be!

[CHARLIE]

Don't be the `moo`
If you can be the cow.

[LINUS]

Don't be the furrow,
If you can be the plough.

`[CHARLIE]

Cause you can't get milk
From a `moo` no way,

[LINUS]

and the furrow's in a rut,
But the plough's okay,

[LINUS AND CHARLIE]

Better to be the cow

And the plough!

[PATTY]

Now,
Don't be the sting
If you can be the bee,
Don't be a two
If you can be a three.

`Cause a sting
Can't make you a honey bun,

[SALLY]

Take two from three

And you still got one.

[ALL]

Better to be the three

And a bee

And a cow

And a plough

And a drum

And a plum

And a coat,

Boat,

Bird,

Sky,

Tree

And the deep blue sea.

Don't be anything less

Than everything you can be!

Don't be the string

If you can be the kite.

Don't be the darkness,

If you can be the light.

Though` you lose its string

You can fly a kite,

But would anybody here

Fly a kite at night?

Better to be the kite

And the light.

Right!

Don't be the tail

If you can be the dog,

Don't be the bump

If you can be the log.

He can wag his tail,

But it can't wag `he,`

A bump without a log isn't much to be.

Better to be the dog

And the log

And the kite

And the light

And the three

And a bee

And a cow

And a plow

And a drum

And a plum

And a coat

And a boat

And a bird

And the sky

And a tree

[PATTY]

And the deep blue sea!

[ALL]

Don't be anything less

Than everything you can be!
